Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Do you ever look in the mirror and think.Ugh? Join new author Dani Rexine as she introduces you to an adorable, little porcupine that is very unhappy with her unruly quills. Porcuponchi s Silly Quilly-do is a delightful story-proving that everyone can have a bad hair day, but a mother s love is unconditional. You will smile as Porcuponchi imagines herself with different quill-dos and eventually discovers what is best for her. You can tell that Dani Rexine learns from her children. She has her mind and heart wide open to the lessons they give her. She returns what she learns with stories of experiences we ve all felt at many ages. This is a great book to read aloud to a child. Read, laugh, get silly, and learn with it together. Children have so much to teach us. Martha Amick Third-Grade Teacher Beavercreek, Oregon No matter how young or old, we all have days when we look in the mirror and don t like what we see. It is easy to forget that God has made each of us an unrepeatable miracle! In this book, Dani, a wonderful young mother, has captured a God concept -a person doesn t need a new look in order to be loved, because love is a gift we can give without conditions. Tom Hurt Lead Pastor Oregon City Evangelical Church.
