Making and recording memories. Life should be a collection of great memories. The best foundation for a great future is a great past. Begin building and recording your past today. A life without memories is like looking at a blank canvas. Get your brush and begin painting. Making memories MUST be intentional. After you have painted the memories; record them here. Record them for family, friends and unborn generations. Don't let memories die. Allow them to live forever. Journaling has always been a big part of my life. It began in 1978 when an attorney told a newly promoted Greg Gilbert, if it's not written, it didn't occur. I began journaling everything. That led to my Leadership and Life Programs and the leadership book, The Power Of Better. I wrote the poem The Best Day Of My Life about journals in 2008. It was written prior to a spring break with my grandson. In July of 2015, I wrote the fiction book, 50 Days Of Hay - A Life Changing Summer - Part One - Unconditional Love. The foundation of the story are the journals of two grandparents and the 16 year old resurrected memories of an angry, broken grandson. When I am fortunate enough to have all of my family members under one roof, I love listening. I hear remember when we went there or remember when we did this? I NEVER hear remember when we bought this or that. It's NOT about things, it's about experiences. It's about Memories. As I write this, I have just completed a week with my 10 year...
