Wood engravings, 207 figures. For Vol. V. In steel engraving: Plates finished, none. In progress, none. In Lithography.--Plates finished--by George Endicott, 8 plates, 8 figures. Wood engraving, 54 figures, for use in text 54, 108 figures. These plates now assigned to the successive volumes, were done by Mr. Endicott chiefly in 1843, 1844, and 1845, and were not included in the estimate of 250 plates given by me in 1847, but were exclusive of that number. In stating work as finished I have placed under that head all work where the engraving is finished without reference to the state of the printing of such work. All the plates done by Mr. Endicott have been printed to 3000 impressions, and all except those for the first volume have been delivered to Mr. Van Benthuyzen. The number of plates printed...
