E-government solutions are prominently represented in efforts to improve the management and efficiency of government information technology resources. To help policymakers discern e-government initiatives relative to their role in various issues, this report identifies and defines the principal e-government sectors and stages of development. It also outlines some of the opportunities and challenges associated with e-government. Some observers define e-government in terms of specific actions: using a government kiosk to receive job information, applying for Social Security benefits through a web site, or creating shared databases for multiple agencies, as examples. Other observers define e-government more generally as automating the delivery of government services. While perceptions vary widely, one organization, The Gartner Group, summarizes e-government as the continuous optimization of service delivery, constituency participation, and governance by transforming internal and
