By -

Anness Publishing, United Kingdom, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Ken Morton (illustrator). 230 x 190 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a first reading series for 4 to 7 year olds. The three little pigs are leaving home to make their way in the big, wide world. The first pig builds his house from straw, the second from wood and the third from bricks - what will happen when the wolf comes knocking? The classic children s story is retold in this enchanting book, which is illustrated throughout with lively and colourful drawings. The simple vocabulary and familiar language means that children can follow as you read or try for themselves. Interactive spot-the-difference games and writing exercises at the back of the book provide a lively learning tool. This is a delightful retelling of a classic fairytale for a new generation, with bright and imaginative colour drawings throughout. It includes an interactive spread that encourages young children to read, write and observe. The fresh and lively storyline is designed to appeal to the young child, with appropriate vocabulary for those learning to read by themselves. Other titles in the series include The Gingerbread Man , Cinderella ,...

This pdf may be really worth a read, and superior to other. It generally does not price too much. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
