Always the Trains: Poems

By Judy Neri

SCARITH. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 100 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.5in. x 0.4in. This volume of poetry is a meditation in four parts--on the joy of being alive, nature, artistic creation, and the psyche. It includes 52 poems, sonnets as well as other compositions. The poems in The Inner Caf section range from meditations on the joy of being alive, to baseball, taxis, motivation and ethical dilemmas, typical preoccupations of our inner caf. In The Greenhouse section, she describes nature as a presence with which our lives are intertwined, which responds to us and is lovely, but which also rebels against our attempts to enslave it. In Out Of Airy Nothing, Worlds, her poems deal with the ways artists create, particularly in writing and in music. In Inner Darkness, Inner Light, Judy Neri circles down into the psyche, exploring zones of darkness and light, of suffering and deliverance. Judy Neri's lyric poems open to a welcoming joy, where door and day invite us to slide down slants of light toward a blossoming and slowly swirling dusk. -Judith McCombs, author of The Habit of Fire (2005), four other books of poetry and two books on the work of Margaret Atwood.
