Not illustrated. 1870 Excerpt: .of navigation would be best consulted by adopting a central position for a harbor. I therefore advise that the improvements at Rondeau be carried out, believing that by rendering this large natural basin available to shipping, a great and permanent benefit would be conferred on the general commerce of the lakes. In conclusion, it may be stated, that in the foregoing report an attempt has been made to describe the physical characteristics of the different places examined, to present in as concise a form as possible all the important information bearing on the subject that could be collected, and to submit the data which form the basis of the conclusions arrived at, so as to place the matter fairly and fully before the Department. It is also proper to remark that, in the discharge of this duty, I have been ably assisted by Mr. Thomas Monro, the officer to whom the surveys were entrusted. I have the honor to be, Sir, Your obedient servant, (Signed,) Johk Page, Chief Engineer Public Works.
