By Hailey Edwards

Samhain Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 264 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Steal the salt. Bind the grimoire. Escape the male. Daughters of Askara, Book 3 When an exchange of stolen goods in the Feriana marketplace turns sour, Isabeau stumbles from the encounter bruised and laden with new orders to complete an even larger heist. With her child's life at stake, there's no room for error or allies. Armed with a lethal book of spells, she strikes a dangerous bargain with Roland Bernhard. Steal a shipment of salt from the Feriana colony, and she'll have her freedom and her daughter. It's all she's ever wanted. At least it was until she runs into Dillon Preston. Dillon is out of commission after a mine explosion, and itching for a distraction. He gets it when the female who saved his leg arrives at the colony with nothing but flimsy excuses and even flimsier attire. She's after something, but is it him or the salt? Trapped in a desperate bid to gain true freedom, Isabeau is willing to sacrifice her life for her daughters, but Dillon has other plans. He wants a package deal, and he's not willing to lose either female, even if it means the...
