ATTACK WITH THE BODEN-KIESERITZKY-MORPHY GAMBIT

Ishi Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 146 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.6in. The Boden-Kieseritzky-Morphy Gambit is lightly regarded and is never played by grandmasters, but it has one of the best records for White of any opening played below the master level. It scores a phenomenal 62 in all games in the chess databases. This book examines an opening which can be quite useful for beginners and amateur chess players. The gambit we will examine (1. e4 e5 2. Bc4 Nf6 3. Nf3! or 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 Nc6 3. Bc4!) has been used by Paul Morphy among other strong players. In my view it is as good a gambit as most others. You won't find it on chessboards of grandmasters these days because White really cannot claim a serious advantage from this opening. Without doubt, White gets enough compensation for the pawn, but no more than that. For amateur use, this is enough, and it is also fun. The opening leads to exciting play with excellent attacking chances. The gambit can be used in the Bishops Opening (1. e4 e5 2. Bc4) or against the Russian Game (Petrov: 1. e4 e5 2. Nf3 Nf6). It is important to remember that most amateur players have poor defensive skills. If a grandmaster has an extra pawn but pays the price of having the king stuck in the center for a while, that's not a big deal. However, failure to castle is one of the most common sources of defeat for most amateur players. Therefore, as a practical matter, this gambit provides excellent opportunities for the first player to win the game. One of the key factors here is that the recommended lines for Black usually involve the advance of the pawn from f7 to f6. This creates a...
