This book is for Restaurant owners, managers, chefs, bartenders, waiters and even busboys. You will learn easy ways to make more money during every shift. Restaurant Owners, Managers Chefs, with my unique training I can inspire your employees to love you, their customers and their jobs. Can your training do that? I can make your employees want to create more customers for you and for themselves. Does your training inspire employees to network outside of the restaurant to create more customers or does your training focus inside the restaurant up-selling to the customers you have? This book works with your current training to excite and inspire your staff to want to do more sell more and create more engagement with your customers guaranteed. Does your training alone do that? My name is LeeAnne Homsey and having grown up in the restaurant business at my mother s knee, I watched how she inspired and moved people to do exactly what she wanted whether she was speaking to a customer or her staff. As an adult I incorporated her philosophies into my management positions and was always praised for my unique, empowering approach my dedicated, thriving staff. With this book, you will have your employees literally jumping out of their seats to start selling. Two books in one, the second half of the book speaks directly to to your employees and shows them how to get the most out of their jobs through relationship building for themselves. Reading a chapter per week at pre-shift...
