At the foundation of this enquiry, whether relating to science, the arts, politics, or religion, has been an early, if not the greatest question - What is the truth in History? What does it show, on the momentous topics - Whence came we? When? Where? Why? Whither do we tend? What have been the chief instruments to advance, or retard, the human race? How long is its progress to last? And what, for greater weal or woe, is to be the consummation of its destiny? Considerations like these are vital to all. But, on this occasion, I do not propose to glance at any of them, except the uncertainties which exist in much of history. These, with their evils and their cure, deserve the careful attention of all who would improve the condition...
