Riverhead Books, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "A rich biography. Those who read it will come away well prepared to understand the prophet whose message, 14 centuries later, is the creed of more than a billion and a half people." The San Francisco Chronicle "This book offers a welcome chance to read [Muhammed's] life story in a more familiar and accessible form than the Islamic sources. The First Muslim succeeds. It makes its subject vivid and immediate." Hari Kunzru, The New York Times Book Review "Richly detailed and beautifully written. [Hazleton] is able to do with words what is almost never attempted in pictures. indispensable." The Seattle Times "Like her subject, Hazleton brilliantly navigates "the vast and often terrifying arena in which politics and religion intersect," revealing the deep humanity of faith." More Magazine "The book's focus is an effort to portray the prophet's unique circumstances and recognizable humanity. Hazleton's biography covers the broad strokes of his life with fairnesshe doesn't gloss over his more fallible momentsand insight." NPR "This story is deep with details not only of Muhammad's life journey, but with historic information about the culture of the times in Arabia. filled with rich color of the locations, culture, and peop it is a book plentiful with tales of Muhammad's life that follow logically from orphan to religious leader, but more than that, it enriches us with the detail of a time and place in history." The New York Journal of Books "[A] humane, audacious biography. An elegant narrative crafted for open-minded readers. a vivid canvas of Arabian life in the early seventh century." Ha'aretz "A genuine attempt to try to understand the human experience Muhammad went through. Hazleton queries and questions in a way that will resonate...
